CHECK- 7:00 AM – 9:00 AM ON SUNDAY, JULY 19, 2026.

All crossbred gilt and barrow weight cards, payment of entry fees, grounds fees, and late entry fees (if applicable), proper release form signatures, and health papers must be turned in by 9:00 AM on Sunday, July 19, 2026.

Grounds fees are to be paid per head regardless if an exhibitor shows from a pen or off their trailer. Cash or Checks Accepted. An ATM, located inside the Fair Office, is available if cash is needed.

Exhibitors must bring their own bedding – shavings only. NO STRAW.

Exhibitor for the open show can show off their trailers, but must still pay grounds fees.

No refunds to non-winners.

Swine Exhibitors are expected to keep their pens maintained clean and bedded at a dry sanitary level during the fair to help maintain pig health and barn bio security which helps prevent disease outbreak and spread.

ABSOLUTELY NO SNARING OF SWINE IS PERMITTED IN THE BARNES OR ON THE GROUNDS

ALL SWINE WILL BE RELEASED FOLLOWING THE COMPLETION OF THE SHOW. PREMIUM CHECKS AND HEALTH PAPERS WILL BE AVAILABLE TO PICK UP AT THE FAIR OFFICE APPROXIMATELY 1 HOUR AFTER THE COMPLETION OF THE SHOW, BARRING NO ISSUES.

It is preferred that the exhibitor winning the premium please pick up their check and sign the Premium Statement. If this is not possible, a family member or friend will be allowed to pick up the exhibitors check but must follow the proper procedure set forth by the State of Illinois. This will require that person to sign their name and provide their address on the Premium Statement.

When picking up checks, please enter and leave through the back (south) door of the Fair Office.

Any exhibitor/participant of our fair receiving more than $600 in premiums/monetary awards will be required to complete a W-9 before receiving their premium/award check.

PREMIUM CHECKS WILL NOT BE MAILED

Purebred Swine Show Rules & Policies

Rule 1 — Authority of the Swine Superintendent and Assistant Superintendents

The Swine Superintendent and his/her appointed Assistant Superintendents shall have shared authority with the fair board over the administration and operation of the swine show. Their authority shall include, but not be limited to: Eligibility, Animal classification, Class breaks, Entry verification, Rule interpretation, Show procedures, Disqualifications, Enforcement of all show rules and policies.

In the absence of the Swine Superintendent, an Assistant Superintendent or a member of the Livestock Board Representative Committee may act on behalf of the Superintendent and exercise the same authority.

Rule 2 – Ownership Requirements (Open Jackpot Show Only)

This is an open jackpot show; therefore, no ownership deadline applies. Animals may be shown regardless of length of ownership. All entries must be made in the name of the exhibitor who will show the animal. The exhibitor listed at the check-in will be considered the official exhibitor for the duration of the show.

Substitution of exhibitors after check-in is not permitted without approval of show management. All swine show entries must be listed under the individual exhibitor's name on the official Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) or health papers. Each animal must be individually identified on the CVI by its ear notch. Animals not properly listed or identified may be denied entry or disqualified.

All purebred gilts and barrows must be properly registered and recorded on the official pedigree in the name of the exhibitor at the time of check-in. Registration papers must be available for verification upon request. Any falsification or misrepresentation of exhibitor or ownership information including CVI documentation, ear notches, or pedigree records, will result in disqualification and may result in further disciplinary action as determined by show officials. Any concerns or disputes regarding ownership, identification, pedigree, or exhibitor eligibility must be filed in accordance with the Exhibitor Complaint/Protest Policy. Complaints not submitted within the required time frame, not filed by an eligible party, or not supported by sufficient evidence will not be considered and will be deemed null and void.

Rule 3 — Eligibility Requirements

All Purebred Breeding Gilts and Purebred Barrows must be farrowed on or after January 1, 2026. Animals born prior to January 1, 2026, shall be ineligible to compete. NO DECEMBER BORN PUREBRED GILTS OR PUREBRED BARROWS ARE ELIGIBLE TO BE SHOWN IN EITHER THE JUNIOR SWINE SHOW OR THE OPEN JACKPOT SHOW. Birth dates must be verified through official registration papers or breed association records approved by the Swine Superintendent, Assistant Superintendents, and Livestock Board Representative Committee. Following state regulations and guidelines. Health papers are required for ALL entries. A Certificate of Veterinarian Inspection no more than 90 days past the date of issuance is required for in-state hogs. A CVI no more than 30 days past the date of issuance is required for out-of-state hogs. Out of state animals will also need an entry permit number on the CVI.

Rule 4 — Verification and Enforcement

The Swine Superintendent, Assistant Superintendents, and Livestock Board Representative Committee shall have full authority to verify: Birth dates, Registration Status, Breed Eligibility, Ownership Requirements, Animal Identification, Exhibitor compliance. Any animal determined to be ineligible may be reclassified, removed from competition, or disqualified.

Rule 5 – Minimum Weight Requirements –

There is no minimum weight requirement for Crossbred Breeding Gilts, Purebred Market Barrow, or Crossbred Market Barrows.

Rule 6 – Crossbred Qualifications

Light Crossbreds Qualifications: Light Crossbred will be defined as blues, blue belts, red roans, red belts, calicos, or any pigs with predominantly white bodies and black or red spots.

Dark Crossbred Qualifications: Dark Crossbred will be defined as black belts, solid blacks, and predominantly black bodies with chromed up white markings.

Rule 7 — Class Break Authority

For Crossbred Breeding Gilts, Purebred Market Barrow, and Crossbred Market Barrows - All animals will be shown in classes as determined by the Swine Superintendent based on declared weights and established class breads. Exact numerical equality between classes shall not be required. The Swine Superintendent, Assistant Superintendents, and Livestock Fair Board Representative reserves the right to combine divide or adjust classes as necessary to ensure fair and competitive class sizes and class distribution.

All class breaks for Purebred Breeding Gilts, Purebred Barrows, Crossbred Gilts, and Crossbred Barrows shall be established by the Swine Superintendent, Assistant Superintendents, and Livestock Fair Board Representative. Classes may be divided by: Breed, Birthdate, Age, Number of Entries or Weight (if deemed necessary). All class breaks shall be final. If you feel there is a clerical error, please contact the Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, or the Livestock Board Representative Committee. All clerical errors MUST be corrected before the beginning of the show. Top 2 placing hogs, in each barrow and crossbred gilt class, will be reweighed. 6% WEIGH BACK

Rule 8 — Adjustment of Class Breaks

The Swine Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent and/or Livestock Board Representative Committee reserve the right to: Split oversized classes, Combine undersized classes, Adjust classes as necessary to ensure fair and efficient competition.

Rule 9 — Equal Distribution Policy

When practical, classes will be divided to maintain reasonably balanced numbers of entries. Exact numerical equality shall not be required.

Rule 10 — Breed Divisions

Breed classes may be established, combined, modified, or eliminated based upon: Number of entries: (4) Four head makes a breed class, less than (4) head, the animal will show as AOB.

Rule 11 — Error Correction

The Swine Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent and/or Livestock Board Representative Committee may correct: Entry errors, Breed classification errors, Birthdate errors, Identification errors, or Clerical mistakes at any time prior to the beginning of the show. These changes MUST be reported to fair office in a timely matter for adjusted judging sheets to be printed.

Rule 12 – Champions and Reserves

Only 1st and 2nd place hogs are eligible for champions and reserves unless the breed only has one class then the 3rd place hog will be automatically awarded. That's the only exception to the rule.

Rule 13 – Entries

There are no limits on the number of entries per exhibitor. Each exhibitor can win only two premiums per class. Substitutions are allowed up until the official check in.

Rule 14 – Late Entry Policy

Entries submitted after the designated Junior Swine Show entry deadline will only be accepted if and only if approved by both the Swine Superintendent and the Fair Office. Requests for late entry consideration will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Approval of a late entry is not guaranteed and will be granted solely at the discretion of the Swine Superintendent and Fair Office. A double entry fee will be charged for all approved late entries submitted after the designated entry deadline. All decisions regarding late entry requests, approvals, denials, and applicable fees are final. (This rule will not apply in 2026 due to the late posting of our book.)

Rule 15 — Show Day Authority

On show day, the Swine Superintendent, Assistant Superintendents, and/or Livestock Board Representative Committee may combine classes, split classes, reorder classes, or change class sequence only prior to the printing of final judging sheets.

Rule 16 — Protest and Appeals

If there is a challenge to class breaks, classifications, eligibility determinations, or procedural decisions, etc. please see the Swine Superintendent, Assistant Superintendents, and/or Livestock Board Representative Committee. These complaints MUST be filed in writing, accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the grounds for the protest to the Swine Superintendent and/or Livestock Fair Board Representative at least four (4) hours before the awards are made. Such protests will be considered prior to the start of the show by a Grievance Committee of three persons appointed by the President of the Marshall-Putnam Fair Association. If the complaint is discovered during the show, the complainant MUST follow the same procedure as written above.

Exhibitor Complaint / Protest Policy- All complaints or protests concerning awards must be filed within (1) one hour after the end of the show. The protest must be submitted in writing to the Superintendent of the Department along with written evidence to substantiate the protest. All protests must be accompanied by a deposit of $50.00. A final decision will be made by a Grievance Committee consisting of three persons appointed by the President of the Association. The deposit will be returned if the protest is sustained. Interested parties will be notified and an opportunity given for them to submit evidence.

Acceptable supporting evidence may include, but is not limited to: photographs or video clearly documenting the issue, Relevant registration or ownership documentation, veterinary records or written statements from a licensed veterinarian, Official identification records, including ear notches, ear tags, tattoos, registration papers, Certificates of Veterinary Inspection (CVI), or health certificates, Direct references to specific premium book rules or class requirements.

Unsportsmanlike conduct, harassment of show officials, judges, exhibitors, volunteers, or failure to follow the established complaint and protest procedure may result in disciplinary action, including removal from the show, forfeiture of awards and premiums, and /or disqualification.

Rule 17. Swine Pens

All swine penning assignments shall be made solely by the Swine Committee. Assignments will be based on exhibitor entries, number of animals, barn capacity, and facility requirements to maintain a safe and orderly environment. Pen locations are assigned as issued. No exhibitor shall change, exchange, or occupy any pen other than the one assigned. Requests for specific pen locations will not be accepted. Unauthorized changes or failure to comply with assigned penning may result in removal of animals and/or disciplinary action, as determined by fair officials. All penning decisions are final.
